

College of Liberal Arts Ambassadors

Application 2015-2016

What is an Ambassador?

They serve as a link between the College of Liberal Arts and prospective students and their families at special programs and events throughout the year.

Ambassadors provide general information about departments within the college and answer questions about student life here at OSU.

Ambassadors help to transition first year CLA students into the Liberal Arts community at OSU through blogs, events and information sessions.

What do you get out of the Ambassador experience?

Networking Opportunities with faculty, advisors, students and other College affiliates

Public Speaking skills both practiced and impromptu

Interpersonal communication and team building skills

Blog about your experiences as a CLA student

Represent the College and University in an official capacity

Leadership experience that you can list on your resume

Two (2) upper-division credits (LS 406) spring term 2015

What is the time commitment for an Ambassador?

Weekly meetings for a 2-credit course in the spring of 2015— Thursdays from 5 to 6:50 p.m.

Participation in OSU activities for the fall, winter, and spring (on average, about 90 hours per year)

Activities may include but are not limited to the following:
