Why is fashion often associated with women and femininity?

How has dress been used as a political tool?

What can fashion help us to understand about race, ethnicity, sexuality, gender, class, and capitalism?

Discover answers to these questions and more next term!

For more information, contact Professor Elizabeth Sheehan at elizabeth.sheehan@oregonstate.edu.