Stanton Willcox Wallace French Immersion Award
2013-2014 Academic Year

For French Majors and Minors

The Stanton Willcox Wallace French Immersion Award was established to honor students with a demonstrated interest in the French language and cultures.

Stanton Willcox Wallace moved to Corvallis in 1941 to work for the Corvallis Gazette-Times and later opened and managed Cascade Printing Company. Mr. Wallace majored in French in college and read novels in French until his death in 2003. His wife, Alice Ingalls Wallace, was a member of the Speech Faculty at Oregon State University and both of their children are graduates of the university. Mr. Wallace served as president of the OSU Dad’s Club in 1964 and was a charter member of the President’s Club.

The scholarship will be awarded in 2013-2014 in the amount of $750. The scholarship may be used to offset tuition for an OSU, NCSA, or OUS study-abroad program of at least one term in France approved by the Department and the student’s French advisor.

Criteria

1. Recipient must be a full time undergraduate student with a major or minor in French.
2. Recipient shall use the funds to study abroad in France and to take classes related to his/her French major or minor.
3. Recipient has a demonstrated interest in French.
4. Recipient shall have a sophomore or junior class standing.
5. Recipient shall have a minimum 3.00 GPA or above in French courses.
6. Financial need shall not be a criterion in making this award.

Application

The following must be received by the Department Chair no later than Friday, April 5, 2013.
