Major Offered Through:

CORVALLIS

ECAMPUS

Chemeketa Community College

History

How do the actions of our past affect the current world? This research-focused history degree program, delivered on-campus and online, explores that question and more to prepare students for successful careers as leading thinkers in the workforce. Students immerse themselves in a robust program to better understand contemporary global issues by searching for patterns and relationships from our history.

In addition, students will gain well-rounded intellectual development and essential career skills in critical thinking, writing, argumentation and documentation.
