

Camille Soltau Nelson

Economics Program
School of Public Policy
Oregon State University
Corvallis, OR 97333

Phone: 541-737-1475
Email: camille.nelson@oregonstate.edu

Education

Doctor of Philosophy, Washington State University, 2006
Field: Economics
Bachelor of Science, Oregon State University, 1998
Major: Economics; Minor: Political Science

Professional Experience

Instructor, Oregon State University, 2011-present

- Courses Taught: Principles of Microeconomics. Intermediate Microeconomics, Introduction to Economic Research (Writing Intensive Course), Principles of Microeconomics (ecampus), Introduction to Economics Research (ecampus)

ECampus Coordinator, Economics Program, Oregon State University, 2012- present

Senior Lecturer, Texas A& M University, 2009 – 2011

- Courses Taught: Economic Development, Contemporary Economic Issues (Writing Intensive Course), Principles of Microeconomics
- Supervised Independent Undergraduate Research in INTS 485 (Senior Thesis in International Studies)

Lecturer, Texas A& M University, 2006 – 2009

- Courses Taught: Economic Development, Contemporary Economic Issues (Writing Intensive Course), Intermediate Microeconomic Theory, Principles of Microeconomics
- Supervised Independent Undergraduate Research in ECON 485 (Independent Study in Economics) and INTS 485 (Senior Thesis in International Studies)
- Coordinator: Undergraduate Research Colloquium, 2007

Academic Advisor, Texas A&M University, 2003- 2007

- Advised and assisted Economics majors in preparing course schedules, clarified degree plans for students, cleared students through graduation requirements, participated in new student conferences, advised students pursuing graduate school, assisted students with general navigation of university life, and recruited potential majors at events such as Aggieland Saturday.

Assistant Lecturer, Texas A& M University, 2002 – 2006

- Courses Taught: Economic Development, Contemporary Economic Issues (Writing Intensive Course)

Instructor, Washington State University, 2000-2002

- Courses Taught: Labor Economics, Principles of Microeconomics

Teaching Assistant, Washington State University, 1998-1999

- Course TA: Principles of Microeconomics, Principles of Macroeconomics

Reviewer (selected)

- Focus Group MindTap Cengage (2015)
- Reviewed developmental stage materials for selected book proposals, Pearson Education (2015)
- Focus Group Digital Interactives Pearson (2015)
- Reviewed 1st Edition Review Karlan/ Mordoch Microeconomics (2015)
- Provided data analysis for Knewton Study Plan, reviewed developmental stage materials for selected book proposals, Pearson Education (2013)
- Reviewed selected chapter for 1st edition Karlan/ Murdoch Microeconomics, Mc Graw Hill (2013)
- Reviewed final developmental stage chapters and material for “Institutions and Economic Development” (1e), Roland, G., Addison-Wesley (2010, 2011, 2012)
- Reviewed updated edition chapters and material for “Economic Development” (11e), Todaro, M. and Smith, S., Pearson Addison-Wesley (2010)
- Reviewed additional developmental stage chapters and material for “Institutions and Economic Development” (1e), Roland, G., Addison-Wesley (2009, 2008)
- Reviewed developmental stage chapters and material for “Microeconomic Principles” (1e) Tyson, L. and Reich, R., Wiley Publishing (2008)
- Authored and reviewed test bank questions for Microeconomics (online edition) Fort, R. and Joerding, W., Washington State University. (2000-2002)

Course Development

- Introduction to Economic Research Ecampus course development, designed and created course content for an all-digital platform
- Introduction to Economic Research, designed and created course content.
- Contemporary Economic Issues, designed and created course content
- Converted Contemporary Economic Issues into a university designated Writing Intensive Course, worked with the University Writing Center and Writing Course committee to secure approval.

Invited conferences

- McGraw Hill Winter Meetings, Distinguished Faculty Consultant, Phoenix, AZ, Jan 2014
- Pearson Teaching Conference, Henderson, NV March 1-3, 2013
- SXSW Engage Conference, Austin, TX March 3-5, 2013
- Worth Economics Teaching Conference, Austin, TX Feb, 2012

Service

- Economics Tutoring Program Student Trainer, 2015-present
Developed and ran tutor training sessions; organized and compiled course materials for tutors; created an online tutoring component for our tutor lab to serve ecampus students and developed a partnership with the Integrative Biology program and their Z499 peer tutor pedagogy course for our tutors beginning Fall 2015.
- Economics Program: Baccalaureate Core Review Coordinator, 2014-2015
- LINC Technology Workshop, May 2015
- Economics Club Advisor, Oregon State University, 2013-2014
- Chair, hiring for 2 new economics Ecampus instructors, Winter- Spring 2014
- Member, SPP Brown Bag Committee 2013-2014
- Chair, Hiring Committee for Academic Advisor for Economics and Sociology, 2013
- Member, Hiring Committee, Instructor, Economics Program, Spring 2013
- Member, SPP Seminar Series Committee, 2013
- Instructor meeting with Phi Beta Kappa representatives to OSU, 2014
- Undergraduate Instruction Committee, Department of Economics, Texas A&M University (2005--2011)
- Website Development Committee, Department of Economics, Texas A&M University (2007)
- Assisted faculty members with converting their courses into WIC courses, advised them on requirements and goals for WIC courses and facilitated the process of approval by serving as a liaison between the University Writing Center and the faculty. (2005-2011)
- Taught 133% course load to cover for faculty on leave (Spring 2007)
- Prepared presentation for Department of Economics recruiting outreach to high school students (2007)
- SCONA Facilitator, Student Conference On National Affairs. SCONA 49: Exploring U.S Policy Towards Developing Nations. Texas A&M University, March 3-6, 2004.

References available upon request