Certification/Release Statement:

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's education records. Education records include all student records. They are considered confidential and will not be released without written consent from the student. In accordance with FERPA, it is necessary for Oregon State University to obtain written consent from the student in order to release any information to the Benton Community Foundation who is the funding source for this scholarship.

By indicating my acceptance of these terms below, I hereby request and authorize the release of information contained in my scholarship application and student education records to the appropriate Oregon State University scholarship selection committees for the purpose of application review and award recipient selection. I further authorize the release of information contained in my scholarship application to the Benton Community Foundation for disbursing the scholarship monies to my student account at Oregon State University.

I understand that this authorization for Oregon State University to use my student education records to assist in the awarding of scholarships will remain valid until I notify Oregon State University in writing that I am revoking this authorization.

I agree with the above statement.
