

German Scholarship - Now Accepting Applications

The Walter and Rose Kraft Award was established in 2016 to honor the achievements of OSU graduating seniors who are majoring in German on the Corvallis campus. The award provides $1000 in scholarship funds to each of three winning applicants. To qualify applicants must meet the following criteria:

- German major
- Enrolled on the Corvallis campus
- 2019 graduation date

To apply please submit:

1. A statement of interest addressed to the "Selection Committee" with your name, email address, OSU student ID number, and a short paragraph describing why you are applying for this award. Financial need will be considered.
2. A 1000-word essay in German on the following theme: Faszination Deutsch

Winning applicants will be also be asked to record a 60-second video talking about how majoring in German has influenced their studies and their plans for the future. Be aware that your video will be shared on OSU websites and WLC social media.

Send your statement of interest and essay to the chair of the WLC Awards Committee Dr. Guy Wood (gwood@oregonstate.edu) by 12:00 PM Wednesday, May 1, 2019. Late applications will not be accepted.
