RECOMMENDED / REQUIRED RESIDENT MPP & PhD COURSES
Fall Quarter 2020
(May 15, 2020)

Note: All MPP and PhD students on GRA/GTA or Fellowship appointments must take a minimum of 12 credits to receive funding. If a student drops below the 12 credit minimum (e.g., dropping courses, etc.), you will be required to repay tuition and fees to the university.

All new MPP and PhD students with little to no background in economics MUST enroll in ECON 517 – Microeconomic Theory for MPP, designed to provide pre-requisite learning before enrolling in ECON 524 – Econometrics, ECON 539 – Public Policy Analysis, PPOL 522 – Quantitative Analysis, PPOL 621 – Advanced Quantitative Methods, and PPOL 622 – Advanced Policy Analysis.

This is not a comprehensive list of possible electives. Browse the on-line catalog to see what other options are available: http://catalog.oregonstate.edu/

NOTE: You MUST receive prior approval by the Public Policy Graduate Director to take any course NOT listed on this document. There are no exceptions to this policy. Our program MUST comply with NASPAA Professional Accreditation guidelines for faculty quality and course content.
