A total of 48 credits is required for the major: 28 credits of required Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies core courses, and 20 credits of elective courses chosen from Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies approved courses or Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program courses. An approved course is one that has a focus on gender, sexuality, and/or women's issues, is taught in a unit other than the Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program, and has been approved as fulfilling the requirements of a Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies course. All required course work must be taken on campus and no more than 6 credits of online elective course work may be used toward the on-campus major.
